LoudnessGuru.Haleakala, the three majestic volcanic peaks on the Island of Maui, are the West Coast's most photographed spot. Very few people, however, have had the opportunity to take the journey through Haleakala National Park's rugged forests, black sands and magnificent vistas.

Haleakala Aloha explains the history and geological events that gave rise to the park, describing its living and cultural diversity, and introducing you to the park's flora and fauna. There is something for every level of experience, and Haleakala Aloha suggests ways to make the most of your visit. From here, you can go for a hike, saddle up for a horseback ride, or relax in luxury in one of the inns in the area. In Haleakala Aloha, photographer Richard Mark Tarbutton teaches you how to shoot a subject in the correct light and use of lighting modifiers such as diffusion, focus aids and reflectors to really capture the desired image.
