VAN ZANDSTUYFT, INC., Appellant, v. MINERVA DE SANTA BERNARDINA PARTNERSHIP, et al., Appellees. No. 4D08-3074. District Court of Appeal of Florida, Fourth District. April 8, 2009. *39
H. Lamar Cole and Scott R. Peterson of Cole, Scott & Kissane, P.A., Fort Lauderdale, for appellant. Gerald M. Marx, Weston, for appellees. MAY, J. In this commercial law dispute, Van Zandstuyft, Inc. appeals a final judgment for breach of contract that ordered it to pay two attorneys' fees. We reverse. In 2002, Van Zandstuyft and Minerva Partners agreed to purchase all of the stock of Emerald Isle Associates Limited Partnership (Emerald Isle) for $4,000,000 in cash. The agreement, entitled "Buy-Sell Agreement" required Van Zandstuyft to pay Minerva's attorneys' fees and costs in the event of an action to terminate the agreement. The agreement also contained non-solicitation provisions. The only provision with relation to attorneys' fees and costs was the following: 2.

ENFORCEMENT/GRIEVANCE: *40 If any Party hereto takes any action to cause the termination of the Buy-Sell Agreement, the other Party may, if in its sole and absolute discretion the other Party feels it is necessary, be entitled to seek a court order enforcing or addressing the provisions of the Buy-Sell Agreement relating to the subject matter of such termination. After purchasing the stock of Emerald Isle, Van Zandstuyft terminated the stock sale agreement. Thereafter, Minerva filed a complaint for breach of contract
