Winston-Salem police said officers were dispatched to the 8400 block of Hampton Way about 1 a.m. They found the bodies of the couple, identified as Mary Jane Randall and James Kevin Crawford, in the front yard. Randall was found in a front yard on the left side of the home, Crawford was found on the right side of the home. Both were stabbed to death, police said. James Lott, 32, of Charlotte was taken into custody without incident and charged with two counts of first-degree murder. Randall's half-brother, Mark Randall, said Randall was kind and laid back. They last saw her Sunday, when they went to walk her dog. "Her and her husband knew my sister," Mark Randall said. "It seems like they were very well-loved and you would never know anything bad would happen with them." James Lott has multiple previous convictions for drug offenses and has been a subject of two narcotics investigations in the city.
