Shoppers can now place their items right at the register at the Pueblo Mall. Pueblo Mall has announced it is partnering with online shopping giant Amazon.com to bring shopping and services right into the mall. The new service, called Amazon Echo in the Mall, is a Wi-Fi connected network of devices including Amazon Echo, Echo Dot and the Amazon Fire TV Stick, that enables customers to interact with the Amazon Alexa digital assistant. "It will be like going to a Nordstrom or Bed Bath & Beyond," said Dave Rockhill, vice president of store operations for Pueblo Mall. "It will be in your hands, but you don't have to be in a checkout line." Rockhill said Amazon's service will be used to compete with the lure of in-store shopping, which is unique to the Pueblo Mall. "It's bringing in services, capabilities, technology that in-store shopping never has," he said. "It's about enhancing the shopping experience, and it's going to make in-store shopping better."

Shoppers can use voice commands to shop online using the device, or the screen will give them directions to the product and tell them its price. Amazon will also recommend products that the shoppers have not yet considered or found. It will be similar to services that Amazon offers for its Alexa app, which enables shoppers to ask questions and purchase products via voice and the internet. "They will be going to Pueblo Mall to shop using Alexa, but they'll be able to do it in their car," Rockhill said. The retail giant already has installed Amazon Echos in the Pueblo Mall's eastern wing, and is about to install them in the western wing. Amazon has hired Pueblo's first Amazon Connect technician to help implement the technology, which will be used to offer service to Pueblo Mall's 900 stores and 1,800 Sears and Kmart employees. Rockhill said that the technology will be available for shopping during business hours and that he expects many people to take advantage of it. "We are excited because this (retail) is unique to Pueblo and we're excited to be a part of it," Rockhill said. "This is something you can't get anywhere else. So yes, we think this is something our customers will really enjoy." Amazon's Echo devices can be purchased from the Amazon website for $
