(Visit the official website for more information >Thanks Santa! So first I opened the package because I just found out that this is my Santa. I could not believe how wonderfully you are located! When I opened it and saw your first note your flower note art stood out. It was so cool. I was so taken by your work, It was obvious that in the short time you had the package in the mail it had to have been done by hand! Her beautiful roses, my small easel, my newly aked artist book (Why didn't you check yes or no to this, Santa?) my cookie sheet and the pencil, and an amazing note from my Santa - You know my work and my passion for the nature around me. Thank you so much, Santa. You've made my first SS post truly perfect, and it was with a smile, not a frown. Thanks again, I'm sure I will think of your kindness when I need to paint those roses. in angiogenic activity when KDR was overexpressed or when Myc-KDR was knocked down.
