monsoonleone@weblogs.comTue, 15 Mar 2018 12:33:39 +0000 Link Software broke in & Help for Fixing

I got a browser running on a device with Clear Link Software where it keeps loading pages but it's unable to load them any longer. To be able to load them again, the Plug-n-Play files need e replaced by a working version.

ve fixed this by downloading the software, putting it on my desktop and instaling the software. It's working fine now but I can't make the device work with the upgraded version now.I have nloaded another one and tried to install, but it didn't work. If this isn't the right info for this topic, please let me know where to find the right info.

trying to download the same file from the same URL doesn't generate a new button like the browser does, it's just greyed out as if it hasn't got the right extensions for the file.

, is there any way to do a restore of the data files without losing or copying over the ones I don't need to, like browser history etc. I have a large list of files.

nk you for your help!
