fantastic world.” Mobile Game Review - “ I recommend The Elden Ring to everyone who enjoys games for the mobile platform.” Gameplay “ Visually, the game is gorgeous, and the music is really nice. Sound wise, there isn’t much of it, but it’s catchy enough. A lot of people will like the personality of the game. You can definitely tell that it’s fantasy-themed, and the game does have some trademark Runescape vibes to it.” Superflower - “ As soon as I started playing Elden Ring, I was hooked. While the game doesn’t have the greatest balance between progression and side-quests, it really kept me wanting to play more. The characters are all really great to be with, especially when you start meeting them. And there are a lot of quests available to you. I really didn’t want to stop playing.” ShopnNado - “ The leveling-up system in this game is simple and easy to grasp. Unlike other games, you level up by playing battles with monsters and characters, thus allowing you to increase your stats in the battle sections of the game.” GamaSutra - “ The story is entertaining and the game mechanics are well implemented, making it a wonderful, enjoyable experience that rewards good players and those who are willing to put in the effort.” VANITY FRONTS - “ The story is fast-paced and interesting, and the character development is cool. I love it and want to play more. And to be honest, I love the visual design, the characters, and the world.” World “ The world is very detailed. There’s a lot of open-world that can be played around and see different places and creatures. The way that the different places and areas are connected is great, and it really adds to the fun.” TouchArcade - “ From a visual standpoint, it’s gorgeous, with both 2D and 3
