System Requirements For NfsCityscapeClock:

Due to the global requirements of this expansion, we've enabled the game to be played on console platforms that are less powerful than those supported in the base game, but still feature full support for Windows. We've also made changes to the minimum system requirements of the game to enable lower-end PC configurations to still be able to play. These changes are required for the inclusion of the two new game modes, Sprint mode and Dreadfall mode, as well as to allow the inclusion of all new weapons, items and boosters. The minimum system requirements for the
