He was subsequently defeated and executed by Hulegu's brother, Baba-Arik, in the Battle of Ongi, in which Hulegu's wife, Sapayagin, was also killed. Soon the prince and the princess were betrothed, and then the prince moved to Ongi. On July 19, 1207 Ariq Böke led an army to Ongi to confront the prince. The Mongol army swept over the Kerait fortress (which had been the seat of Rilinaweli's rebellious activities), capturing and killing many of the defenders. The prince fled with the princess from the fortress to nearby Arsuu, and the Mongol army pursued and caught up with them in the area of Ongi. There they fought the battle, but they were
