American Eagle Virgoese Earrings to come in June 2018 Hi everyone, I am so glad you're here today as I'm going to share some exclusive information with you about a limited-edition pair of American Eagle Virgoese Earrings to be released in June of 2018. I have learned that these earrings are part of a new permanent collection for American Eagle in the United States and Canada that they are calling 'Virgoese'. As we know, Virgo was the zodiac sign for the mythical figure Helen of Troy, who was the mother of Achilles. These new earrings represent the strength and courage that Virgo can bring to us. The name 'Virgoese' comes from the Latin 'virgo spero' which means 'virgin hope'. These beautiful earrings feature the American Eagle eagle as the symbol of strength, courage and hope. American Eagle will be offering these new Virgoese Earrings, and the other new permanent collection pieces, at only $15 each. They can be purchased at AmericanEagle.com or from a participating American Eagle retailer. This is the first time these new earrings will be offered as a permanent collection, which will last well into the future. I am so excited to be able to share this information with you. As I'm sure you can guess, I have been waiting for this day for some time!
